Albert Einstein (1879-1955)

*Scientist, Nobel prize in physics-1922,
Professor, Princeton University:*

“As a child I received instruction both in the Bible and in the Talmud. I am a Jew, but I am enthralled by the luminous figure of the Nazarene. No one can read the Gospels without feeling the actual presence of Jesus. His personality pulsates in every word. No myth is filled with such life.”

George Sylvester Viereck, “What Life Means to Einstein,” The Saturday Evening Post, 26 October 1929.

CAN YOU BE JEWISH AND BELIEVE IN JESUS ?

IF JESUS IS THE PROMISED
JEWISH MESSIAH THEN IT
IS THE MOST JEWISH THING
IN THE WORLD TO BELIEVE IN HIM.

SO LET'S DEAL WITH THE QUESTION:

“WHAT MAKES a
PERSON JEWISH?”

The real issue is not: “Can I still be Jewish if I believe in Jesus?”

The issue is:

IS JESUS THE JEWISH MESSIAH?

Let's not forget that Jesus was Jewish. His Hebrew name is Yeshua. All of the first followers of Yeshua were Jewish.

Norman Cousins (1912-1990)

Writer, editor of the Saturday Review, recipient of the United Nations Peace Medal Cousins wrote: “Christianity and Judaism share one of the great reluctances of history. Both are reluctant to live openly and fully with the fact that JESUS WAS A JEW.

The earliest Christians knew neither awkwardness nor reticence over the fact that Jesus was a Jew. Most, if not all, were Jews themselves. To these Jews, the Jewishness of Jesus was not incidental or extraneous but inevitable.

HIS COMING, THEY BELIEVED, HAD BEEN FORETOLD IN THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES;

it awakened the dictates of faith that were natural to the Prophecy. Messianism was in the air; the idea of salvation was powerful and dominant.

THERE IS EVERY REASON FOR JUDAISM TO LOSE ITS RELUCTANCE TOWARD JESUS.

His own towering spiritual presence is a projection of Judaism, not a repudiation of it. No other figure—spiritual, philosophical, political or intellectual—has had a greater impact on human history.

THE MODERN SYNAGOGUE CAN LIVE OPENLY AND FULLY WITH JESUS.”

Norman Cousins's article “The Jewishness of Jesus” appeared in American Judaism (Rosh Ha-shono issue) 10, no. 1 (1960)

SO, CAN YOU BE JEWISH AND BELIEVE IN JESUS?

LISTEN TO THIS CONVERSATION:

A Jewish man, [David] meets a Jewish man, [Jack] who believes Jesus is the Jewish Messiah. David says, “You can't be Jewish and believe in Jesus!” “Let me ask you question,” says Jack, “were you Jewish when you were born?” “Of course I was,” says David. Jack then asks, “What did you believe about Judaism when you were born?” David looks a little confused and then he says, “I didn't believe anything, I was a baby.” “But you were Jewish, right?” questions Jack. “Absolutely,” replies David. “Well,” Jack says, “you weren't Jewish because of what you believed; you were Jewish because your parents were Jewish.”

The Biblical definition of a Jew is that they are a descendant of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.
